MacBook Air

A world where confident parents raise confident children

Judgment is as common in parenthood as bodily fluids. And can appear out of nowhere and throw your day off course, too. Your family, in-laws, mail carriers, and Instagram feed all spew opinions about what you're doing (or not doing) incorrectly. Not to mention being our own worst critics. So we created a space to escape judgment so you can learn to trust your instincts.
